06, Dancing Coyote, Albarino, California

Legend has it, each year at the start of the growing season, a band of coyotes from the nearby foothills, sneak into their vineyards, and chew on their irrigation lines with wild abandon. Following these scandalous acts, they have been known to join paws and howl at the moon in celebration. Fortunately, this has no effect whatsoever on this vibrant Albarino. This unique Spanish grape produces a light, dry wine with delicate aromas of honeyed peach and a crisp, fresh finish.

$9.95 per bottle

06, Cakebread Cellars, Chardonnay, Napa

In 2006, a long, cool growing season fostered slow, even ripening of the Napa Valley Chardonnay grapes, which developed intense, concentrated flavors. They enhanced this character by night harvesting, whole cluster pressing the fruit and fermenting 75% of the juice in French oak barrels. Sur Lie aging in the barrel for seven months further enriched the wines deep, pure apple, melon and pear flavors which reveal refreshing citrus and mineral notes in the lingering full-bodied finish.

$29.95 per bottle

06, Cascina Ca'Rossa, Nebbiolo, Langhe

Ruby in color, it jumps with bright, lively fruit. Perfect for lighter spring and summer menus. Always a great match with a plate of cured meats and ripe cheeses, pepperoni pizza, lasagna, bolognese sauce, prosciutto and salami.

05, B.R. Cohn, Cabernet Sauvignon, Sonoma Valley

B.R. Cohn has consistently produced one of the premier Cabernets in California from their Olive Hill Estate Vineyards in the heart of the Sonoma Valley. Underground natural hot springs warm the soil, and the gentle ocean breezes create a unique microclimate perfectly suited for growing Cabernet Sauvignon. The warm 2005 growing season, along with a light crop and small concentrated berries, produced a full-bodied Cabernet Sauvignon with rich, ripe fruit. This wine has deep aromas of cherry, black currant, and plum, wrapped in French oak, anise and mint. Luscious berry and cherry flavors fill the palate, and silky tannins follow through to a warm, lasting finish. This wine was fermented in small lots and aged for twenty-four months in the finest tight-grained French oak barrels.
